

Stacey L. Johnson

stacey@sljlawfirm.com

Stacey L. Johnson, PLLC
20325 N. 51st Avenue, Suite 134
Glendale, AZ 85308

PH: 602-218-5445 FAX: 602-218-5405

DIRECT: 623-498-8105
www.sljlawfirm.com

Stacey L. Johnson concentrates her practice in the areas of guardianship, conservatorship, probate administration, trust administration, protection of vulnerable adults, and litigation in all these areas. She provides advice and counsel to licensed private fiduciaries regarding compliance with the Arizona Code of Judicial Administration and interactions with the Fiduciary Board and staff. Stacey speaks to community organizations and to professional organizations such as the State Bar of Arizona, the Arizona Chapter of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, and the Arizona Fiduciaries Association. Her community involvement is focused on her service in support of Duet, Partners in Health and Aging, an organization dedicated to the vision of every person aging with compassion, dignity, and hope. Stacey enjoys spending time outdoors and with family.

Stacey has been licensed to practice law in the State of Arizona since 1999, is a member in good standing of the State Bar of Arizona and is an attorney member and Past Chair of the Elder Law Mental Health Section of the State Bar^[1]. She served one term as the appointed Attorney Member and Vice Chair to the Arizona Supreme Court Fiduciary Board in 2007 and has been practicing primarily probate and elder law since 2004. She is also a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, serving as the President of the Arizona Chapter of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys in 2015. Stacey has served on the probate and criminal benches as a Judge Pro Tempore. She has served as an expert witness in this area of practice. On January 21, 2011 Stacey was selected as one of Arizona's Finest Lawyers after a peer-reviewed nomination and selection by the Executive Board based upon demonstrated record of high achievement, excellent legal skills, and well-earned reputation for integrity. She is recognized in the 24th Edition of The Best Lawyers in America (2018) for high caliber work in Litigation – Trusts and Estates. She enjoys addition recognition by U.S. News - Best Lawyers® since 2017 and Stacey L. Johnson, PLLC is a regionally ranked U.S. News - Best Lawyers® "Best Law Firms" in trust and estate litigation.

^[1] The section has changed names numerous times; however, this is the name of the section during Stacey Johnson's tenure as Chair.

Eliza Read

Frazer Ryan Goldberg & Arnold LLP

Senior partner Eliza Read is a Certified Estate and Trust Law Specialist (Arizona Board of Legal Specialization) and a Certified Elder Law Attorney (National Elder Law Foundation).

Her practice focuses on estate planning, asset transfers and business succession planning; elder law, including guardianship and conservatorship, disability/special needs, and public benefits planning; probate and trust administration and litigation; tribal and federal Indian law; and mediation and alternative dispute resolution.

Eliza is a board member and past president (2020) of the Arizona Chapter of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA). She has served as chair of the State Bar of Arizona Mental Health and Elder Law Section (2006-2007) and as a board member for many organizations associated with elder law, tribal rights and interests, estate planning, and protecting the rights of aging people and people with disabilities. She is also a licensed fiduciary.

CARRIE L. REDNOUR
ATTORNEY AT LAW

Carrie L. Rednour practices law in Tucson, Arizona, where she focuses on estate planning, probate, guardianships, conservatorships and elder law. Carrie graduated from the University of Arizona College of Law in 2001. In 2006, Carrie started her own law office - Rednour Law Offices, PLLC.

Carrie is a member of the Arizona Women Lawyers Association (Southern Arizona Steering Committee member 2003-2017; President 2009; State Board Member 2009-2022; Vice President 2015; President-Elect 2016; President 2017), State Bar of Arizona Mental Health and Elder Law (Chair 2008-2009), Pima County Bar Association, and a past member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (Board member 2007-2008) and Arizona Fiduciaries Association (Board member 2015-2017).

Carrie was recognized for her volunteer project with the Pima County Bar Association Young Lawyer's Division by coordinating a volunteer program helping individuals obtain guardianships of their developmentally disabled relatives.

Carrie is a past member of the Board of the Lohse Family YMCA, the Crisis Response Network of Southern Arizona and Growth Partners Arizona.

Carrie is a member of the Board of Emerge and CYT Tucson.

Carrie is a frequent speaker to the community and other lawyers on estate planning, probate, long term care planning and elder law.

Carrie volunteers with the Minor Guardianship Clinic for Southern Arizona Legal Aid.

In 2011, Carrie was selected as a Top Attorney by Tucson Lifestyle Magazine. In addition, Carrie is a member of the 2011 40 Under 40 class. In 2019, Carrie was recognized by the Arizona Bar Foundation as a Top 50 Pro Bono Attorney and received the Frances McClelland Community Practitioner Award. Carrie also received the Alice Truman Leadership Award from the Arizona Women Lawyers Association in 2019.

Carrie spends her free time with her family, including her 2 children.

Stacy L. Shuman

STACY L. SHUMAN is Staff Bar Counsel at the State Bar of Arizona. In addition to working in the Attorney/Consumer Assistance Program, which handles all incoming inquiries and consumer complaints about Arizona attorneys, Ms. Shuman investigates and prosecutes formal ethics complaints against attorneys, as needed. Ms. Shuman received a B.A. in 1987 from Saint Mary's College and a J.D. in 1990 from Indiana University at Bloomington. After law school, Ms. Shuman joined an AV-rated, commercial firm in Indianapolis, Indiana. In 1998, Ms. Shuman relocated to Phoenix and later joined the Child and Family Protection Division of the Arizona Attorney General's Office, where she remained for eleven years before joining the State Bar in 2011.

Kevin W. Wright is a partner in the Phoenix office of Snell & Wilmer LLP.

Kevin's areas of practice include estate planning, probate and trust administration, trust and estate litigation, tax litigation, and business succession planning.

Kevin was born and raised in Lake Forest, California. He graduated from Westmont College in Montecito, California. Kevin earned his J.D. from Arizona State University.

Kevin is a member of Snell & Wilmer LLP's Pro Bono Committee. Kevin is also a past president of the Central Arizona Estate Planning Council (2021-22), and currently serves on its board of directors. Kevin is also a board member of the Phoenix Zoo's Planned Giving Advisory Committee.

In his free time, Kevin enjoys spending time with his wife, two small children (5 and 3), and large canine.